

ERIE ROAD POLICE PUT IN UNIFORMS.

Entire Force of the Railway Re-organized with Inspectors, Captains and Sergeants, Just Like New York City's.

GEN. SCHOEFFEL IN CHARGE.

Rules Are Modeled After Those of the New York Police Department, Provision Being Made for the Examination of Applicants.

Under the direction of Gen. George J. Schoeffel, once head of a brigade in the Minnesota National Guard, the Erie police force, which numbered more than two hundred, are being reorganized over the twenty-five hundred miles of the Erie Railroad.

According to the plans outlined by Gen. Schoeffel, and which were received from the printer to-day, the reorganization will be along the same lines as those governing the police departments of the large municipalities of the United States. Most of the rules are taken from the Police Department of this city. What are known as the watchmen are to be considered in the same class as patrolmen in this city. There are inspectors, captains and lieutenants, and sergeants. The same kind of reports are to be made by every man as required in every well-organized city police force, and accurate blotters to be kept at each division or precinct.

The Two Inspectors.
The two inspectors are Jeremiah O'Brien, formerly chief of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Police Department, who is to be stationed at Jersey City, and William Hillhouse, with headquarters at Meadville, Pa.

Inspector O'Brien will have charge of all the men west of Jersey City, and Inspector Hillhouse will look after all those from Meadville to the western terminal of the road, including not only the Erie, but those lines which it connects. All of the men are to be uniformed. The captains, lieutenants and inspectors are to have blue uniforms, while all of the watchmen will wear suits made of khaki, designed in regulation army style.

Besides the two inspectors, there will be six captains, and the lieutenants will number twelve. No man in the employ of the police department of the railroad is expected to have very much time to himself. In each precinct, or section, as the police department of the railroad is to be divided, there will be a watchman at all times, and a large force can be called on to quell any disturbance. Of course, the larger force will be located at various terminals, such as Jersey City, where the police have principally to contend with marauders who prowls about the tracks where loaded freight cars are held.

Those who rob freight cars and "hoboes" are the principal persons whom the new police force have to deal with. They will also be expected to see that all rules of the company are enforced to the letter. Whenever a violation of a rule is detected, special report will be made upon that employee and sent to the proper department head. Persistent violation of rules will, hereafter, result in the dismissal of the culprit.

Must Pass Examination.
All of those men employed in the Erie police department must pass a regular physical and mental examination, just as though they were applying for a municipal position under civil service rules. The examination will be made on merit, and "pull" will count for nothing.

When Gen. Schoeffel was seen in his headquarters in the Erie Station at Jersey City, to-day, he refused to discuss the details of his plan of reorganization.

"I have instructed all of my men," he said, "not to talk for publication to any one, and of course, as I am head of the Erie police force, it would hardly be becoming for me to violate one of my own rules."

"I was appointed as Superintendent to succeed Chief Douglas by First Vice-President William, who is now in Europe. I have only been in charge since June 15. Most of the time has been spent in going over the rules and finding out just where the most improvements could be made. Many of the men preferred to get out when I took hold, because they had not in such a run that they found it impossible to fit themselves to the new rules."

Gen. Schoeffel is a very young looking man for one who has had the military experience that has been his lot. He was appointed second lieutenant of the Wisconsin National Guard by Gov. Smith in 1881. After that he drifted into Minnesota and rose steadily in the State Militia, until in 1889, Gov. Merriam gave him the rank of brigadier-general.

NEW YORKERS AT UNVEILING.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 21.—A large party of New York people is expected here to-day to attend the unveiling of the Mexican War Veterans' monument. Among them are W. L. Lacey Martin, William Watson Martin and Mrs. Thomas A. McIntyre, grandchildren of Lieut.-Col. Watson, whose flag is now in the care of the monument, and Archibald P. Mitchell, Malcolm Mitchell and Mrs. Lucy Mitchell, great-grandchildren of the famous soldier.

Mrs. James D. Telegraph, one of the descendants of Col. Watson, will unveil the statue.

ORDER OF POLICE CAPTAINS DOOMED

Association That Flourished Under Old Regime Is Near Disbandment as Result of Commissioner Greene's Activity.

MEMBERS RETIRE UNDER FIRE

Many Have Left Because of Possible Charges and Few Have Joined, So Organization Supposed to Be Related to "Graft" Will Soon Quit.

Two years of real reform has proved too much for the Police Captains and the Police Sergeants' Benevolent Association, and both are now on their last legs, ready to give up. A strong effort will be made to hold them together, but the men most interested in them will have to go to the wall. Commissioner Greene is blamed for it. It is due to his retirement of so many Captains and Sergeants.

The two organizations have existed for years. When a Captain was forced to leave the service, retired or was bounced or died, a thousand dollars was paid either to the Captain or his heirs. The Sergeants' Association pays a similar amount.

The two organizations have been protective in character for years. They have stood by their members and there always has been a suspicion that the associations were one of the controlling influences and the bond of comradeship of the order. It is a known fact that many of the worst "graters" in the department have been the strongest in the association.

Are Retired Fast.
For the last two years the captains, inspectors and sergeants have been retired at a rate ruinous to the funds of the associations. About fifty captains and inspectors have travelled out of the department by the pension and other routes since Commissioner Greene took hold. One after the other, for some reason, preferred half pay to running chances, and as they went out they wanted their money from the association.

For awhile it was all right. The new captains being made were expected to recruit the membership. A few came in and then accessions ceased. Some way or another the tip went around that the association was not a good thing with which to be identified and the new captains failed to joined.

The Didn't Pay.
They paid nothing for their promotion. Their allegiance was not with the gang of the past, but with the new administration. The Captains Association dwindled for lack of recruits until the treasury was bankrupt and the captains were called upon to pay assessments to fatten the purses of the retiring ones who were unable to stand it. Being forced to live on their salaries, they felt it a hardship to dig down for assessments of $50 and $100 to pay thousands to a batch of retiring members of the order.

Several quit, some were suspended and the association is prepared to throw up the sponge. What is true of the captains' organization is also true of the sergeants' association. It, too, is on its last legs. The only hope is the election. Of course, if the new administration with the new captains might listen to the advice of the old gang and get in the association, but it is expected to those who are familiar with the facts that it will not last six weeks until election.

On Friday last there was a meeting of the members of the Captains' Association, and all were told that the game was up. It was expected that the new administration, and all admitted that as long as Commissioner Greene was at the head of the force there would be few new captains seeking to join.

TRANSFER FRAUD ARRESTS.

LYNN, Mass., Sept. 21.—Two employees of the Boston and Northern Street Railway were arrested in this city yesterday in connection with the extensive frauds perpetrated upon that company by means of bogus transfer checks, which were exposed in Boston yesterday.

The men are Herbert E. Shawman, janitor at the Central Square station, and Herbert W. Sherman, conductor. Shawman admitted having purchased $4,000 worth of the counterfeit transfers at various times, while Sherman at the time of his arrest had $60 of the bogus checks in his pocket.

FILIPINO WORKMEN HELD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Thirty-one Filipinos who arrived here last Thursday on the transport Sherman are being held at St. Louis, where they were to be employed in the construction of the Philippine houses at the exposition, are detained on board the transport by the immigration authorities because they are apparently liable to become public charges.

Although armed with letters of identification from Manila, the thirty-one Filipinos are all in financial straits, and appear poorly equipped to continue on their journey to St. Louis.

STATE OFFICIAL A SUSPECT.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 21.—A dispatch from Placerville says that State Comptroller Colgan, W. I. Hood, General Manager of the Rio Vista Copper Mine, and J. H. Bradley, the millionaire mining man, were held up yesterday on the road into Placerville by a deputy sheriff, who suspected them of being diamond thieves.

A woman guest at the Tallac Lake House, claimed last July to have lost diamonds valued at $500. Deputy Sheriff Cook was on the road watching for a ric carrying the suspected persons, when Colgan, Hood and Bradley came along and the officer ordered them to stop. Colgan's appearance was rather aristocratic and his manner very suave, like the diamond thieves told about in books, and the officer accordingly centered his attention upon him. A strong suspicion was held that the three men were diamond thieves, and that while Colgan wore diamonds, he had honestly earned them by keeping puffers out of the State Treasury.

After more than an hour's detention the party was allowed to proceed. Later the real suspects came into town and were arrested.

WENT THROUGH HURRICANE.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 21.—The four-masted schooner Massachusetts came in here yesterday almost bare of canvas. From her rigging flew fifty long white streamers, all that was left of her sails after passing through the hurricane of last Tuesday.

Aboard the schooner, waving their hands to those aboard ferryboats passing as the Massachusetts came to anchor, were the two young women, Hattie Story and Blanche Montgomery, who three weeks ago sailed from Norfolk for New York as guests of Capt. Lane, of the Massachusetts.

After the girls had sailed their fathers threatened to have Capt. Lane arrested, but as the mothers of the young women came forward and said they had consented to their daughters making the voyage, prosecution was abandoned.

The girls said they had had the time of their lives. They visited many places of amusement, went aboard the Flamingo, were introduced to Sir Thomas Lipton and received calls aboard the Massachusetts from Mr. Arzuckle, the coffee man, and Edward Smith, the millionaire owner of the vessel.

The girls were in their cabin asleep when the hurricane struck the Massachusetts last Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock. They said they were thrown out of their berths to the floor and lay there seakick until the blow was over.
